

Santa Cruz de Tenerife

Spain, Morocco & Canary Islands

12 days/11 nights

Spain, Morocco, Canary Islands, Madeira and Italy

Everything is a joy, the aromas and the colours and, of course, the climate, during this cruise that takes you through the Strait of Gibraltar to discover the islands of the Atlantic.

The first stop is Barcelona. The Catalan capital will enthral you with its vitality, its stunning masterpieces by Gaudi and Picasso, and the lively hustle and bustle of Las Ramblas.

Casablanca is the next port of call, and from here you'll be able to visit the legendary imperial cities of Morocco, real gems of Arabic architecture.

Once past the Pillars of Hercules, you'll be in the Atlantic Ocean with its colourful islands. On the island of Tenerife you'll see tropical colours to the north, rocks to the south, before stopping at the island of Madeira, and Funchal, its capital. Here you'll discover landscapes of majestic beauty. On the way back, Malaga is not to be missed, for visits to the enchanting Marbella, at the foot of "la Concha", or the famous Nerja caves, which feature rock paintings and imposing stalactites.

GÉRARD PONS VOYAGES

For the last 15 years, Gérard Pons Voyages has been organising cruises for people suffering from kidney disease. Holiday Dialysis International - a division of the Fresenius Medical Care Group - and Costa Cruises, leaders in their respective fields, are partners of Gérard Pons Voyages.

HOLIDAY DIALYSIS INTERNATIONAL

Holiday Dialysis International books dialysis sessions worldwide for dialysis patients who wish to travel for business or for leisure.

COSTA CRUISES

Costa Cruises has generously provided a space on its cruise liners dedicated to the dialysis sessions. Please note that Costa Cruises staff considers dialysis guests the same as any other passengers. Please note that there is no restaurant service in the hospital on board and guests are advised to eat before or after the beginning of the treatment.

Costa Concordia

This is the Costa Cruise ship for fitness and relaxation. Completely innovative, this floating resort becomes an additional destination on your Costa Concordia cruise. What makes it so special? To start with there is a fitness area on two decks, covering a total of almost 2,000 m², with a swimming pool at its centre. The beautiful Samsara Suites have direct access to the Spa. There are also four swimming pools, two with retractable glass roofs. Choose from 13 bars, including the Bar Sport. Over 500 cabins have balconies. The decks are spacious and panoramic. It is the largest and longest Costa Cruise ship in the fleet.

Costa Pacifica, Music Takes a New Form

The most harmonious style awaits you onboard Costa Pacifica. Inspired by music, the lively, colourful interiors are customised with musical notes that characterise the atmosphere onboard. The ship is a spectacular mixture of architectural styles that create pleasant and unique sensations. The excitement is never-ending with a Grand Prix Stimulator, the Playstation experience, the spectacular outer deck with glass roof and night cinema, and a theatre boasting exclusive technology to assure exceptional sound quality. (1,504 cabins including 91 with direct access to the spa, 521 with private balcony, 58 suites with private balcony, 12 suites with direct access to the spa).

Ship Facilities

5 restaurants & 13 bars - Samsara Spa: Wellness Centre with gym, Thalasso pool, treatment rooms, sauna and steam room, UVA-ray solarium, Cabins and Suites - 4

Travelling safely around the world

The proposed cruises are open to HD and PD dialysis patients, transplanted patients as well as their families and friends.

The ships are fully equipped with a dialysis unit managed by a qualified nephrologist and specialised renal nurses. The dialysis machines are Fresenius Medical Care 4008S and can be used for single needle and standard bicarbonate dialysis. Only single use materials are used. The water treatment system is equipped with reverse osmosis units.

As far as possible, dialysis sessions will be scheduled while the vessel is at sea in order to allow guests to go ashore and participate in excursions. The dialysis shifts will be organised in groups of 4 patients, and 3 groups will be scheduled on different shifts and days (you may indicate your preferred shift and your request will be taken into consideration according to availability).

Travel is always subject to approval by medical staff and a minimum of 12 dialysing guests are required per cruise.

Spain, Balearic Islands & Tunisia

8 days/7 nights

Spain, Balearic Islands, Tunisia and Italy

In Spain, you'll stop in Barcelona, famous for its Gothic buildings and the imaginative architecture of Gaudi and Picasso's masterpieces. Costa Concordia then ventures on to Palma on the sun-kissed island of Majorca.

Cruise on to Northern Africa and Tunis, whose Medina is listed as a Unesco World Heritage Site. Take a walk in the souk or visit the archaeological site of Carthage and the typical Sidi Bou Said, famous for its white and blue houses.

Discover the ever changing Sicily, with the historic centre of Palermo, or Catania at the foot of Mt. Etna.

In Rome, from the port of Civitavecchia, you'll be able to visit Saint Peter's basilica and the Colosseum.

Malta, Tunisia & Corsica

6 days/5 nights

Italy, Malta, Tunisia and Corsica

It's when you're travelling by sea that you best catch the signs of spring: smells, colours and landscapes that touch the soul.

Enjoy an intensive itinerary full of exciting landscapes, ancient artifacts and priceless treasures.

Tunis offers an exotic taste of the Arab world, where you'll visit the traditional souks and markets that will give you a shopping experience with a difference.

Why not combine this cruise with the cruise departing on April 11th?

Norway & the North Cape

12 days/11 nights

North Cape and fjords of Norway

Enjoy time on board and marvel at the dramatic beauty of the Norwegian Coastline as Costa Pacifica lazily winds its way north. During this cruise you will enjoy the glacial magnificence of the Norwegian Fjords together with breathtaking landscapes.

At the port of Hellesylt you'll find yourself sailing up the gorge of the Geiranger, considered to be the most spectacular fjord, with its sheer drops and waterfalls that plunge into the sea after some spectacular leaps.

Absorb the splendour of the North Cape at Honningsvåg.

And then there's Bergen, the delightful town built around its port, with its historic town centre featuring houses made entirely of wood.
